A WORLD OF CULINARY EXPERIENCES

One of the best ways to experience a country is by tasting its cuisine, and at Expo 2020, you can eat your way around the world without having to leave the UAE. With food central to Expo's multi-cultural experience, you can try everything from authentic street food to fine dining prepared by top international chefs. With more than 200 food outlets, you are spoilt for choice, with options ranging from Expo's dedicated dining venues and facilities to cuisine cooked and served at many of the international pavilions. It's your chance to get a true flavour of countries from every continent.

Expo, with help from its food partners, is also pushing the culinary ethics agenda with its Food Ethos, using organic, locally sourced produce and sustainable packaging where possible.

Expo is a dining destination in its own right, offering a huge array of cuisines, venues and gastronomic experiences all in one place. From sitting on a picnic bench at one of the food truck parks to savouring a three-course meal at an upscale restaurant, there are an endless number of dining options to explore, each with their unique vibe.

Discover the Never Been Seen Collection, which features a range of culinary experiences brought especially to Expo, bringing together chefs and flavours that had not previously reached Dubai.

Don't miss our Local Gems, including some of the UAE's most longstanding and beloved eateries such as Al Reef Bakery (Opportunity District), Chicken Tikka Inn (Sustainability District), Dampa Seafood Grill (Mobility District), Hanon Feras Sweets (Mobility District), Maraheb Restaurant (Opportunity District) and Ravi (Mobility District).

Every day, some of the world's most creative culinary minds will push the boundaries of gastronomy in our Bespoke Food Concepts.

For some foodie theatre, head to the live cooking station at Farrago, the Expo Culinary Experience restaurant, where Expo has invited countries from around the world to showcase their national dishes, cooked to perfection by guest chefs.

BESPOKE FOOD CONCEPTS

Concepts that have been curated and developed specifically for the Expo

Alkebulan The African Dining Hall

Alkebulan is the world's first African dining hall, celebrating the last untapped cuisine and the world's largest hidden gem. The African dining hall is an exploration of the rich and diverse culture consumed through its food, music and design. Curated by world renowned chef Alexander Smalls. Alkebulan (pronounced al-kee-boulan) – the oldest name for Africa and translating to 'Mother of Mankind' or 'Garden of Eden' – is an exploration of the rich and diverse culture consumed through its food, music and design curated by award-winning chef Alexander Smalls.

Top African chefs are being flown in to cook up their signature dishes, including Chef Coco, celebrity TV chef Kiran Jethwa and Chef Smalls, along with a host of guest chefs throughout the Expo. With culinary demonstrations and musicians performing live as you dine, providing upbeat African ambience, it is a must-visit.

Afro Street Eatery, by Coco, allows you to explore the streets of Africa and share in Coco's vision of modern African street food, with rich aromatic flavours of West Africa, and dishes such as Ugandan-style miniature chapatti wrap filled with beef or vegetable curry.

Bar Cane, by Coco, satisfies sweet cravings, serving what could well be the world's finest doughnuts, washed down with dessert cocktails.

Chicken Coop, by Smalls, celebrates the humble chicken in two of its best forms: rotisserie and fried. The triple-fried Tunisian baharat chicken, paired with a thick, custardy Belgian waffle, is not to be missed.

Choma BBQ, by Coco, is inspired by the art of roasting, grilling and smoking meats, with a menu that includes the not-to-be-missed Zanzibari spiced rice and lamb, served with kachumbari salad, as well as Kenyan-style beef skewers served with roasted green bananas.

|| Expo Street Food

You will find a Food Truck Park in every district, each serving delicious grab-and-go fare, from pizza, hot dogs and Lebanese snacks to ice cream, waffles, mini pancakes and more. Ideal for a quick pit stop to refuel with friends and family, these casual outdoor venues have plenty of seating – and you won't leave hungry.

Where: Opportunity, Mobility and Sustainability districts.

Jiko Cocktails, by Tribe Hotel Kenya, brings together the flavours and spirits of Africa through shaken, stirred, muddled and strained cocktails created by talented bartender Kelvin Thaiya.

Penja, by award-winning chefs Pierre Siewe, Glory Kabe and Moos Gbane, promises innovative African cuisine and a world-class culinary experience from Cameroon and Benin, featuring dishes such as farm cockerel breaded with mustard and tapioca, and tandoori vegetables with fermented cassava semolina.

Seven Seafood, by trailblazing chef Kiran Jethwa, offers a contemporary look at East African seafood using ingredients, flavours and combinations from the region to take traditional Kenyan cuisine into the modern world.

Shoebox Bakery, by Chef Mame Sow, offers the ultimate pan-African bakery experience, spanning sweet and savoury items, including Ethiopian injera flat bread.

Sweet Ophelia's, by Smalls, is an Afro-Asian wok bar that serves tasty rice, noodle and dumpling dishes, including West African favourite Cameroonian pepper fish.

The Tasty Goat, from Jethwa, showcases nose-to-tail dining of this fantastic and versatile meat, combined with the tastes, textures and flavours of modern East African cuisine.

Lavazza – Solar Coffee Garden

Italy Pavilion

Make Coffee with the Sun: Lavazza unveils its café, designed by Carlo Ratti Associati, at the Italian Pavilion for Expo Dubai. Inspired by the principles of circular economy, the project features a human-sized moka pot powered by sun energy.

Solar Moka: Inspired by the Middle Eastern climate, it embeds an array of mirrors to track the sun for heat production. Once heated, water flows through the copper tubes surrounding the café, reducing energy consumption for the subsequent phases of the coffee making. The design pays tribute to the iconic Carmencita moka pot, designed by Italian designer Marco Zanuso for Lavazza in 1979

Counter Made With Coffee: made of reused coffee grounds and topped by a tactile surface of coffee beans and resin.

Coffee Plants: Medium-sized coffee plants Suspended above the ground show the initial stage of the coffee production process. They will be grown on-site during the entire event. Discover our Italian Coffee Experience, come to visit!
